

22—Memorial Chapel, Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn.

BA.H2344

CAPITOL NEWS CO., NASHVILLE, TENN.

FISK MEMORIAL CHAPEL was built by means of a legacy from General Clinton B. Fisk, (for whom the University is named), which in accordance with the wishes of the family, was devoted to the erection of a memorial building. The University was founded in 1865. It is supported by an endowment and by annual gifts from people all over America. The University grants A.B., A.M., and Mus.B. degrees.
